

2017 Dickinson College Farm Apprentice Application

The Dickinson College Farm Apprenticeship Program begins in May and runs until mid-November, 2017. Apprentices can expect to engage in a 40 hour work week plus assist with evening and weekend chores, as needed. In return for their efforts, interns receive $9 per hour plus additional benefits like free on-farm housing and Wi-Fi plus free access to farm-raised products such as vegetables, herbs, fruit, as well as discounted meat and eggs through the farm CSA.

The purpose of the apprenticeship is to equip you with the skills to advance toward future management of a diversified farm. Educational opportunities will be made available to supplement what you learn through daily farm work. For further details on our apprenticeship program, please refer to the apprenticeship description.

Please carefully read over the following questions and reply accordingly. An in-person interview will be scheduled with you once your application is received. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions, halpinj@dickinson.edu.

Please send your completed application to halpinj@dickinson.edu by February 9th, 2017.
