The cause of putties and the character of the City demand that the circumstaness attending the arrest of Hornee Preston be investigated. James Mattis, of the VIS Ward Police, in charged with having reized the unfortunate man on a false accusation of larcery, and, as it would seem, without any legal sulthority whatever. At least, Preston, himself, knew of ne warrans for his arrest and Mr. Cutver, his connect, could his arrest and Mr. Culver, his counsel, sould not ascertain that he was immured in the cells of the Vich Ward Picson by virtue of any legal commitment. And as if to confose the valvel, Martin carefully kept away from testifying before the Commissioner; his deeds had apparently bean of a nature to seek obscuring.

These facts, we say, demand investigation. It is of no consequence to the question that Preston was finally sent off as a slave. That does not make it any the less an outrage for Martin to arrest him without warrant or on a fake charge, and shut. not ascertain that he was immured in the

Would it not have been better, a thousand times better to delay an hour, a day even, in hearing such heatimony, than to risk seeding a free ma-inte alsewy! Apparently not, according to lir. Morton. In his view freedom, especially of 'niggers,' is of no consequence.
