

LETTER FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.

Henry Mossey, the Fugitive Slave—Resumption of trade with Savannah—Suffocated, &c.

Yesterday, U. S. Commissioner Ingraham delivered an opinion in the case of Henry Massey, claimed, as a fugitive slave by Franklin Bright, of Queen Anne county, Maryland.— After reviewing the testimony at length, the Commissioner decided in favor of the claimant, and granted a certificate to remove the fugitive to Maryland.

The steamship Keystone State will resume her trips to Savannah on Wednesday next.— The State of Georgia will sail the following week, so that the regular weekly communication with Savannah will soon be re-established.
The new steamship Quaker City is receiving freight for Charleston at Queen street wharf, and will sail on her first trip to that port as soon as the health there is sufficiently restored.

Twenty-four calves were suffocated while on the route from Pottstown to this city, on Thursday, in a car on the Reading railroad. They were placed in the car, which was entirely closed, so that all means of ventilation was cut off. When the train arrived at the depot, every one of the animals was found dead.

The United States Circuit Court being without a room in which to set, Judge Grier has taken the responsibility of directing the United States Marshal to hire a suitable place. It is a little disgraceful to the United States Government that its officers have no suitable accommodations for the transaction of the business of the Government.

Yesterday-morning Henry Wilson was arrested upon the very serious charge of attempting to seduce a young, single woman, a daughter of a respectable citizen. He was held by the Alderman in $10,000 bail to answer at Court.

Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the way train on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, which left Baltimore at 11 o'clock, A. M., ran over a man between Elkton and Newark, killing him instantly.— The unfortunate man who was a farmer residing on the line of the road, was cut up and crushed in a shocking manner.

H. Restenbatt, a passenger on the train from Baltimore on Tuesday evening, was robbed of $4,500 in notes of the Banks of Lebanon, Lancaster, Reading and Harrisburg. He offers a reward of $500 for information that will lead to the detection of the robbers and the recovery of the money.

The work goes bravely on—seven more disreputable houses, commonly termed houses of ill-fame, have been broken up, and their occupants settled.

The brewers, in consequence of the high price of hops and barley, have put up the price of porter and ale to $6.00 a $7.00 per barrel, and $12.00 a $14.00 per hind.
