NOTED EDUCATOR PASSES HERE.

REV. J. A. LIPPINCOTT DIES IN LOS ANGELES.

Occupied a number of prominent positions in educational institutions of the East and Middle West and served in the pastorates of two great Methodist churches.

Rev. Dr. Joshua Allan Lippincott, widely known in the East and in the Middle West, both as a divine and as an educator, died last night at the home of his son, J. B. Lippincott, at No. 1556 West Adams street.

Dr. Lippincott was born in Vincenttown, N. J., in 1836. He served as professor of mathematics in Dickinson College in Pennsylvania, and afterward became chancellor of the University of Kansas at Lawrence, Kan.

The degree of D.D. was received by him at Lafayette College, Pennsylvania, and he had the degree LL.D. conferred upon him by the University of Michigan.

His work as a divine embraced a period of service as pastor of the First Methodist Church, of Topeka, Kan., and as pastor of the Arch-street Methodist Church of Philadelphia.

Among his other activities was that of the secretariaship of the Methodist Hospital of Philadelphia.

Death followed a brief illness. He came to Los Angeles only a few weeks ago. The only surviving relative in this part of the country is his son, J. B. Lippincott, principal assistant engineer for the Owens Valley work in connection with and for the Los Angeles city water system.

The remains will be interred at Kansas City.
