

---

 Mr. George W. Meeker, of Chicago, has resigned his office of U. S. Commissioner, which he held for many years, owing to his repugnance to acting under the fugitive slave law. He can be spared.