
FUGITIVE SLAVE ARRESTED.—Harvey, the fugitive slave whose arrest was attempted near Cummins ville, a few weeks since, but who succeeded, for the time, in escaping, was the day before yesterday captured at a house in Goshen, about 10 miles from this city, brought to this city, and lodged in the county jail. An investigation in the case was had before Commissioner Pendergast yesterday afternoon, and the slave remanded into the custody of his master. The underground railroad must be out of repair.—Cincinnati Commercial, 21st.
