

The slave case before Ingraham, mentioned in last week's paper, in which Gideon Rothwell of New Castle county, Delaware, was the claimant, and James Westby respondent, was postponed on account of the illness of the latter. It came up, however, unexpectedly on Tuesday, and resulted, as was to be expected, in a warrant from Ingraham to give the man up to his alleged owner.