The screenshot shows the 'My Weebly' dashboard after a site has been created. The top navigation bar includes 'Home', 'About Us', 'Blog', 'Support', 'Affiliates', and 'Contact Us'. The 'My Weebly' section shows a site named 'CarlisleHistory....' with the URL 'www.carlislehistory.com'. There are 'Edit Site' and 'View Stats' links. The 'To-Do List' on the right shows a progress bar at 44% Complete. The list includes: 'Start a Blog' (checked), 'Upgrade to Weebly Pro', 'Add Keywords and a Site Description', 'Check out Google AdSense', 'Tell Friends About Weebly', and 'Publish a Site' (checked with a green checkmark). A callout box points to the 'Edit Site' link.

THE ONLINE HISTORY ARCHIVE FOR CARLISLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Welcome To Carlisle History! This forum is dedicated to building a greater understanding of how Carlisle has changed over the years.

This site was started as a class workshop in American Studies at Dickinson College, in association with the Downtown Carlisle Association, the High "I" Project, and the Cumberland County Historical Society. Each student conducted at least two formal interviews with people in the community (now available here). In addition, inspired by our conversations with local residents and community leaders, each student developed research on a particular area of interest (now available here). With all of this information compiled together, we hope that this site will begin to serve as a more personal cartography, or mapping, of the place where we reside. For a list of contributors, please visit our contact page.
