

CONNECTING CAMPUS LIFE TO LIFE ON THE FARM

- Where to Start
- Recruiting Interest
- Campus Allies
- Community Partners
- Ideas

Where It All Started

Weekly Farm Stand in Student Union & Campus CSA

Campus Composting

Gleaning & Food Deliveries

Recruiting Interest = Building Awareness

- Cafeteria Awareness through Signage
- Farm stand
- Toilet “Papers”
- Seasonal/Annual Events
 - ✦ Harvest Fest
 - ✦ Local Food Dinner
- Weed-n-Feed
- Meet-Your-Farmer Events/Field Trips
- Book Clubs
- Internships
- After School/Youth Programming

DICKINSON COLLEGE FARM

All-Natural Vegetables

Picked FRESH for YOU

Cilantro
1.00

Basil
1.00

Carrots
2.00

Beets
1.50

Chives
1.00

Want to be involved in the process?
Then join SISA. Students involved in Sustainable Agriculture is a student club at Dickinson College. If you are interested in brainstorming about activities and want to take an active role in SISA, please meet in the underground at 8 pm Monday, September 12th.

Yes, we DO accept DEBIT BALANCE

Campus Allies

- SISA & other like-minded student organizations
- Res Life
- Greek Life
- Community Service Groups/Class Requirements
- Bonner Leaders
- Health (& Wellness) Center
- Career Center
- Academic Departments

Community Partners

- Local Food Bank
- Local Farmers & Farming Organizations (PASA)
- Farmer's Markets
- Buy Fresh, Buy Local Campaign
- Faculty & staff
- Cooperative Extension Office
- Community neighbors

Children's Program w/ Dickinson Community

Community Tours w/ Cooperative Extension

Indoor Farmers' Market Venue on Campus

~Ideas~

- Informational signs in academic buildings
- Edible Landscaping
- Mini/Manageable Campus Gardens (herbs, flowers, etc.)
- Residence Hall Composting
- Cooking Club
- Value-Added Products
- Student CSA/Work Exchange
- Seed Exchange
- Phys Ed Class Option
- Others?